“ Please accept my belated condolences for your loss.

Over 50 years ago, Ralph and I worked together at the Baltimore District Office, US Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. I remember that Ralph was a very gentle, kind and caring human being. I was fortunate that he was my co-worker, office mate; and became my friend.

Ralph left our world a better place because of a life well lived while he was here.

May God bless him.

Very sincerely,

COL Wayne R. Yoshino, Ret.
