He received most of his higher education in India at DeNobili College, Sacred Heart College and St. Mary's College. He was ordained to the priesthood in Jamshedpur, India on March 24, 1960.

Fr. McHugh had a fond love for the Jesuits' mission work in India, and following his ordination, he served as Parochial Vicar and later as Pastor at St. Xavier's Church in Chaibasa. In 1993, Fr. McHugh returned to the States and served as a Pastoral Minister for a year at St. Alphonsus Rodriguez Church in Woodstock, Md. before earning his Ph.D. in Psychology from The Union Institute of Cincinnati. He then spent several years at Holy Trinity Church in Washington, D.C. as Parochial Vicar. In 1998, he returned to St. Alphonsus Rodriguez Church, and over the next 17 years spent much of his time teaching and ministering in India and Ireland.

Fr. McHugh moved to the Colombiere Jesuit Community in Baltimore in 2015, praying for the Church and the Society of Jesus. He died on June 27, 2018 at the age of 88.

“ I went with Ralph and Janet to Jamshedpur in 1999 and attended both the basic and advanced NLP courses at Upasana institute adjoining the Jeuit novitiate there. After returning to Bombay (Mumbai) I urged him to give similar courses and the next year attended the NLP course at the Bandra retreat house followed by many courses in NLP, gstalt and NLP and Health both in Bombay and Bangalore.

Dick was very kind to me and I am grateful for this and the challenge he posed to me.

Dick did mention that CDs of his teaching were circulating in the US. I will be grateful for any such CDs and will arrange for collection from the US.
