“ Dear Sharon,
Dick was one of the finest persons I have ever known. I admired him as a good husband, father and grandfather who loved his family first and foremost. At the same time, he was a wonderful friend who I have cherished ever since we met while working for the Baltimore YMCA on the Chesapeake Bay. I am privileged to have known him, and I will miss him for whatever may be the duration of my life. My condolences to you and the family in this time of sorrow.
