

Robert Carroll Nugent

January 28, 1923 - August 12, 2011

Robert (â€œBobâ€) Carroll Nugent slipped the surly bonds of earth on August 12, 2011 at the age of 88 after suffering a stroke a year ago. He was a life-long resident of Baltimore, born at home on Ensor Street in Baltimore, on January 28, 1923, and grew up on Rosebank Avenue in Govans. He attended St Maryâ€™s Catholic Elementary School, and Was a proud 1941 graduate of Loyola High School. Bob attended Loyal College, played varsity baseball - shortstop and 3rd base and was a standout at both positions. Passing up offers to play baseball professionally, he joined the Maryland Province of the Society of Jesus, of which he was a member from 1943-1953. As a Jesuit, Bob taught core subjects at Gonzaga high school in the 1950s, and later in Maryland public schools. After leaving the Jesuit order, he spent the remainder of his working life with Sparks Office Supply, and later Century Supply Co. in Baltimore. He was a lifelong Orioles fan, who held team and family loyalty as prime virtues throughout his life. Bob now joins his parents, Margaret Scott Cummings Nugent, and Owen James Nugent, at rest in the Lord; is also predeceased by his sisters, Sister Margaret Louise Nugent, Mary Louise Nugent Debelius and Helen Bertha Nugent Leach, as well as by his brothers, Owen James Nugent Jr., George Edward Nugent, Charles William Nugent, and Hillary Joseph Nugent, all of whom he loved dearly. Bob is survived by his beloved sisters Anne Catherine (Nancy) Kenney of New Freedom, PA, Mother Maria Nugent (nee Catherine Joan (Nugent) of the Abbey of Regina Laudis, Bethlehem, CT, and by numerous nephews and nieces.rnrn
