

Mrs. Rosemary McElroy St. Clair

October 2, 1943 - October 13, 2023

In Loving Memory of Rosemary McElroy St. Clair

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Rosemary McElroy St. Clair on October 13, 2023. She was a woman whose kindness and love touched the lives of all who knew her. Rosemary was the eldest of 6 children, born on October 2, 1943 to the late Margaret and James McElroy.

In an enduring union that defined a lifetime, Rosemary married her beloved late husband Joseph Nelson St. Clair (1945-2019). Together, they built a family steeped in devotion and warmth. Rosemary is survived by her children, Jamie St. Clair Muhly (Daniel), Katey St. Clair Earle (Garrett), and Josef St. Clair (Jamie). Her legacy is carried on by her grandchildren: Davis Muhly, Abigail Muhly Staton (Huw), Liam Muhly, Thomas Muhly, Gavyn Earle, Ryan Earle and Finn Earle. Earlier this year, her heart swelled with the joy of welcoming her great-granddaughter, Harper Jane Staton.

Rosemary passed peacefully surrounded by family and with the comforting knowledge that she would be reunited with her husband, Joe, in eternity.

Her memory will forever be etched in our hearts, a testament to the enduring power of love and family. We will gather for visitation at Mitchell-Wiedefeld Funeral Home Wednesday October 18th, from 3-5 and 7-9 and will celebrate her remarkable life on Thursday, October 19th at 11:00 at St. Pius X Church.

Flowers can be sent to Mitchell-Wiedefeld Funeral Home, 6500 York Rd, Baltimore MD 21212 and donations to ALS Foundation.

“ *She was the epitome of what it means to be a big sister A loving best friend with only your best interest in mind. A fierce protector who keeps you safe A person who is always on your side against all adversaries big and small a person who listens no matter how busy she was
A person that makes you know you're loved
This is our Rosemary my big sister I will love her and miss her forever*
