“ What an incredibly giving and kind man he was. He loved church, the Greek community and most of all his family. He should be proud of the life he lived and I will miss him. My condolences to the Karavedes family. May his memory be eternal. Fondly and with a heavy heart, Peter Campanides

“ I think every positive attribute you can give a person applied to Sam. He was warm caring, funny, talented, and on and on. He was a loyal member of the Worthington Chapter of AHEPA and served in many capacities, including chapter president.

I have wonderful memories of Sam since I got to know him in the early 1980s. He and my father-in-law were born within two weeks of each other and were known to celebrate their birthdays together. Nancy and I are sorry we cannot gather with Mary and the rest of Sam's family in person to share wonderful memories and pay him tribute.

His memory is eternal.
