“ We were very sorry to learn of your father's passing. When he came to Baltimore, my uncle was in some way helpful to him. Conversely, when my uncle went to HK, your father was a help to him. He was always very kind to me at Canton Carryout. In fact, many times when I came in he let me come behind the counter and help with customers. In later years I saw him at the health club. He was always very positive. In fact, even when it was evident things were difficult, he has a smile. We will always remember him
