“ Stevie will be missed by everyone who had the privilege of knowing him! We lived in the neighborhood and hung out at the Kauffman's where the welcome mat was always out! The kids played while the parents stayed on the Deck. Stevie was always welcoming... greeting us with a big smile and a sparkle in his big beautiful eyes then he would immediately tell me where his parents were and volunteered to show us the way! He had a huge heart and made sure everyone was included. I remember being at Padonia Pool and all the kids were playing volleyball in the pool and Stevie was making sure all the little kids got a chance to hit the ball! It warmed my heart to see Stevie, a young teenager look out for Natalie and Liz. Stevie, God Bless You and Rest in Peace. Love Always Elliott, Connie & Natalie

“ There are so many memories its to many to share here. Growing up running around Pine Valley with Matt Scheinder. When we would tie wagons to bikes with jump ropes and try to race around the block with him and I in our respective wagons wiffle ball bats ready to try and "Road Rage". Best one was a car came by so Chris DeGraw pulling Stevie in his wagon stopped not realizing the wagon didnt have breaks, and barrellled into the curb flying into someones lawn. Hopping right back up ready to do something crazier next! The neighborhood capture the flag games, acorn wars, cops and robbers, etc. We had our differences as we got older. But, all I keep thinking about is the great childhood I had with Stevie, Liz, Linda, Sarah, Steve Sr., and my mom. I wouldnt trade it for the world.

My only regret is not having more "bro seshs" as you called them. And, had a chance to play Call of duty again, you can call me a taint sucker or something rediculous as always! Then laugh and drink together 1 last time!

I LOVE AND MISS YOU R.I.P STEVIE

“ Me and Stevie go way like Cadillac seats, one of the only friends I've kept in contact with since I moved to MD my junior year of high school and has seen me in ALL phases of my life since. We always laughed riding our skateboards as security guards chased us out of towson parking garages, and as we got older we laughed as bouncers kicked us out of bars. Countless nights I slept on the recliner in his room for whatever the reasons were. Through all the stupid arguments we had he was always and will always be my example of what it means to be a good person and a true friend.

“ The short moments we had together over the years were ones I will remember forever, you were definitely one of a kind, I wish I knew you better & had more time but I always had love for you and your sisters regardless of the distance & I hope you are no longer in pain, it's not goodbye but see you later

“ Stevie, was and always will be remembered as a loving, kind, caring and let's not forget hilarious soul. He was always there with a smile on his face waiting to light up the room. He will be missed deeply but his memory will live on. We love you Stevie ❤️
