“ I was so saddened to hear of Susan's passing. At family gatherings, it was your laugh and your smile I looked forward to. And years ago, when I was going to college in Baltimore, you certainly livened up a day when you came into Cooper's Camera Mart where I worked.

Susan, you were beautiful, charming, smart and funny. And wow, how you loved your family. You will be missed by so many people.

Tim, Kate & Kevin, I know you have so many memories. Please cherish them and take care of each other until you see Susan again.

“ My deepest sympathy to Tim, Kevin, and Kate and family for the loss of their beloved Susan. Although I only met her on few occasions, she was so warm, friendly and easy to talk with—such a pleasant person. My heart goes out to her family, and especially Tim who was one of my late husband’s dearest friends and colleagues, May her memory be a blessing.

“ What can you say about Susan she was truly one of the nicest and kindest person. Susan and I found each other the first day of first grade at Cathedral for our sons. Over 44 years she was always at different events at church and always would help when help was needed. Treasured memories of field trips to DC with the class trips. Over the years we would meet up at Bible study or just running into each other . I treasure her memory oh yes we sure had fun. Susan was an amazing mom it was her GRANDS were her world . I remember her tell me about how she know Tim was the one after her date. Their everlasting love was always present all . My hugs and love to the family Susan’s wings will always be around you! “ It was a great pleasure to have known Susan and I always enjoyed engaging in conversation with her. She was very insightful and each time had lots of questions that showed her deep interests in the matters discussed.

Susan had an outgoing personality and always displayed great pride in her family, her nursing career, and her Catholic faith.

May her faithfulness to the Lord grant her eternal rest and peace.

“ I met Susan when she first started dating my brother, Tim. She quickly became a loved and valued member of our Doory family. Over the years, we shared so many happy, sad and wonderful times together.

Susan was the most wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother anyone could ever have.

We all loved her and will miss her so very, very much.

She was truly my sister and best friend.

I thank God for sending such a special, kind and wonderful person to our family and to me. 🙏❤️
