“ We met Susie at The Grachur Club many years ago. I was saddened to read, today, of her passing. Only pleasant memories of a very nice and friendly individual. Susie, may you rest in Peace and Bill may you be sustained by the knowledge of God's Grace.

“ Since we first met Susie we found her to be a strong and loving person. She welcomed our daughter Sina into the family with open arms. We will always be grateful for the love and support she showed Sina during her illness several years ago. Susie was a devoted wife to her husband Bill, and a loving mother to her sons Sandy and Charlie. To her four grandsons she was their biggest cheerleader and rarely missed any of their games, be it lacrosse, soccer, or basketball. We were always impressed with her energy and stamina. She will be missed by everyone who knew her.

Susie was the most empathetic, loyal, energetic, funny, worrywart I have ever known! We have been best friends for 75 years! She was a treasure to all those who were lucky enough to know her!

“ Without question, Susie’s love for me was unconditional and I knew she’d be there for me if I needed anything. I know her friends and family experienced the same. She adored Bill, Sandy, Charlie, Sina, Candace and their children. More than anyone, except maybe my mother, she always remembered my birthday. I received a card from her every year, including 2020, and I would tease her often that I missed the days when I was young and she’d included $10 with the card! She welcomed Laura into the family with love after we were married, and did the same when Catharine and John came along. During the last 6-7 years, my relationship with Susie evolved and we got closer. We spoke and texted often about family, getting older, life challenges and all of her activities, which there were many. I miss her lots, but know she’s at peace and surely catching up on everything with Nana and Papa!

“ Mom was the toughest and kindest person on earth. She loved her family and friends and would do anything to help you. She was our family's number 1 fan...always there to support us. Mom, may you rest in peace knowing that you lived your life to the fullest.

How beautifully said, Charlie. She was so crazy about all of you. I'm missing her terribly.
