“ I don't know if Thao's mom read this, but I really wish I could send her a hug. I don't know if you remember me, but I was Thao's best friend in elementary school at Sallie Curtis. Dani. I'm so sorry. Thao was a beautifully sweet girl. I missed her when she moved. & I still miss her today.

“ I only met Thao once through my son. She was so caring and a kindhearted person.
My thoughts are that she has found peace. Robin Shaffer (Erik Pfeffer's mom).

“ Thao was a beautiful, talented, and gifted young woman who had so much to offer and too little time to come to realize that for herself. I will always remember for her art, her pictures that expressed her feelings, thoughts and pain; her creative writing; and her mind that for a time let her believe that anything was possible.
I am sadden that Thao has left this earth. I hope and pray that where ever she is she has found peace.

“ I will always remember how Thao loved jumping on the trampoline with my boys. She was a most loving person with so much warmth in her heart. She cherished children and truly enjoyed playing with them. We will all miss her terribly.
