“ I was born on June 25th 1957... A few days later, My Mom and I needed a ride home from the Hospital because my Dad could not afford to take a day off...Who do you think volunteered to get behind the wheel.... it was my Mothers dearest of dear friends... Theresa "Nana" Catherine Kaster. For the next 64 years I would have the honor of knowing, and Loving Mr. and Mrs. Kaster. I can't begin to tell you what gift it has been to have them in my life. My Mom and Dad are once again with Theresa and Joe.

“ Although I knew her briefly and saw her infrequently, it was a privilege to know "Nana"! She was a lovely, spirited and kind-hearted lady! We discussed favorite books, and I have fond memories of our conversations. Gary and I send our condolences to her family; may you find comfort in many happy memories, Mary Ellen Kasey

“ She was always nana banana to me and always will be my nana. I remember her waiting on the porch of her ocean pines house to wave us in and to say good bye when we left. She was always taking care of us and making sure we were all ok and happy. She loved her grandkids but loved her great grandkids even more. She would just watch them all and smile. I miss you so much nana but can only smile knowing you are up there with pops.

“ Theresa Kaster was best known as nana to most. My fondest memories always include trips to the beach, fighting over sitting in front of nana so she could comb our hair, eating her amazing “lumps”, being treated to a tub of Neapolitan ice cream on a sugar cone, opening gifts on Christmas Eve, watching her in her rehab commercial celebrate a birthday, wearing her curves shirt proudly, singing “you’ll be in my heart” on the way to the beach, and so many other wonderful memories. Nana was a caretaker for all including her beloved Joey. She cooked never complained and always was offering to help out in any way she could. She truly was a mother Theresa. We will miss her dearly but her memory will live on in my household every time I make a pot of lumps. Love you and miss you Nana.

“ From Pat Walker, her daughter.
I have so many memories of my mom. Albeit not a bad one in the lot. I was not in Baltimore when she died and I feel very guilty about that. But I am blessed with a couple of memories from my last visit in May. The first one is my sister Sue putting a wig on my mother so she would look beautiful. She did look pretty but she also looked like Nancy Regan. We all had a good laugh about that. But I will always remember the cinco de mayo hat Burke brought over for the occasion. She wore it and would not take it off. Mom always loved a good party. We poured her a glass of wine and she was off to the races. I will miss that lady forever. There will be no replacement. Love you Mom.

“ Nana made everything better. She would put cream on my gymnastics rips. She knew the perfect way to use baby powder to get sand off our feet after a day at OC Beach Club. Her lumps will be a forever favorite, She always made me strawberry shortcake with fresh picked berries for my birthday. Her great-grandchildren will always remember her whispering "I love you" into their ears. My heart is happy knowing that she is with her Joey. Miss you, Nana.

“ Nana would come and make everything better. She put cream on my hand rips from gymnastics. She made my favorite strawberry shortcake for my birthday. She knew how to use baby powder to get sand off our feet after hours at the OP Beach Club. Her lumps will never be matched despite a step by step tutorial. In her later years, she just lit up and showered us all in love and happiness that we were there. Her great-grandchildren will remember Great Nana as a spitfire that always whispered “I love you” in their ears. Miss you, Nana Banana.

“ Mom, my heart is so empty but I must go on. You were my best friend and my rock for my whole life. I know you are at peace and with dad, but I miss you so much. Never was there a person who gave so much for her daughters, grandkids and greatgrandkids! You have left such a legacy and have a special place in all of our hearts. Be at final peace with God.

“ My heart is so empty without you mom. I know you are in a better place and in no pain. You have been my best friend, and my rock. Your goal in life was to take care of your family and you did that till your last days. There is so much love coming from all over mom, for you it would make you smile! You are now at peace and in God's hands.

I love you more mom!
