“ Terri and Michael were my neighbors in Chapel Hill and what wonderful neighbors they were! We did everything from shovel snow in winter to creating a woods garden in back of our townhomes in summer. We drank wine, served on committees, had backyard parties, decorated for holidays and had so many wonderful times together. And Terri was a true friend. She even Christmas shopped for my husband two weeks before he died so there would be gifts under the tree for me. She was there for us in so many ways during those times. I like to hope they are having a glass or two together right now.

“ Terri gave the warmest and most reassuring hugs. Her smile was embracing and infectious. She often made me strive to be more selfless. She always made you feel like family even if you are new to the fold. I shed a tear for this loss but I'm sure she's resting in the bosom of her Heavenly Father. Rest in glory Terri! May the beautiful memories we have of you be a consolation.

“ I moved here 4 years ago from NYS and began attending Church of the Nativity. Terri is one of my first and most endearing memories of Nativity. She welcomed my husband and me with that beautiful smile and her wonderful hug. We became very close friends. I cherished any time that I spent with her. She made every person who came into her life feel as special and as loved as I did. What a gift! I miss you every day but I know that beautiful smile is lighting heaven for the rest of us to follow. I love you Terri! Gale Hatch

“ It's so hard to believe Terri has passed to the other side of life. Her smile, energy, and presence continue in our lives and at Nativity unabated. What an extraordinary example of Jesus's love and joy she was to us all. May the angels lead her into paradise. We love and miss you, dear Terri. With a loving heart Father Nicholas (Amato)

“ When I first became a Eucharistic minister I was very unsure that I was the right person for that job. Terri was the person who made me feel valuable and welcome even though I was new. I would have never been confident enough to take the front center spot if it had not been for her. Every Sunday she would check to make sure I was in her section. I felt like we were partners for that time. She inspired me in her courage in fighting her cancer battles at a time I was going through my own. She was always positive. I felt an ache in my heart this Sunday and I will feel it every Sunday from now on. Terri was a good and faithful servant. She is hosting the saints in heaven!
