“ *We say goodbye to my Brother-in-law, my friend and a fun Uncle to my son Jason. So many great memories of golf outings, fishing on the Bay, shooting pool, 3 martini lunches, great dinners, teaching my son how to make his outstanding Caesar Salad (yum yum) and so many other to numerous to list. For now, enjoy the peace and love you are surrounded with and rest with Jesus! May our GOOD LORD BLESS and comfort all your family and your friends as they mourn. We loved you brother Tom and we will see you again...

“ I hope it brings you comfort to know that I am celebrating the life Judge Thomas J. Bollinger lived and am thankful for his friendship as an outstanding and honorable person.
Lucky to have the pleasure of working with him on his first day with the District Court and then the Circuit Court. I'm sure he was welcomed in heaven by Judge Turnbull and Boone.

“ To the sons & family of friends.
Both of us are deeply proud to have met you, Tom. It was in 1994 at the Towson Elks that we had that fortunate behalf. Myself as a bartender & Danny as your Elk Brother. Our circle of friends & acquaintances crew immensely as that year passed. Many laughs, many sorrows til this time we shared with you in our friendships. Outside of the Courthouse, thankfully never attended, you always showed a very humorous personality, very thoughtful compliments of appreciation and just a plain JOE!
You made our friendship a quality experience of a friendship. Thank You, Judge Tom Bollinger.

R.I.P. 🙏💕
