“ Tom was a great guy. I met him at Mercy Ridge on Wednesday mornings to play chess. Along with a few other retired fellows, we met and played for yrs. He had alot of interesting stories. Like 1935, seeing Babe Ruth play. And in 1947 going up to NYC to play in a chess tournament, when a massive snowstorm hit NYC and he had no galoshes to wear to walk back to the train station. How he loved being a child in Baltimore and starting the first chess club at Loyola College, being just up the street from his childhood home. He was always in good spirits and beat most of us regularly, even though he was in his 90's at the time. The chess game group even took Tom out to lunch a few times as he no longer could drive his car. His foot couldn't push on the brake pedal strong enuf to stop the car's forward motion. He told me did Sudoku puzzles and stretching every morning and played bridge weekly. Once he said he could still run, and without a beat took off down the hall at full speed! lol To me all my time at Mercy Ridge chess group with Tom's generosity and overall loving spirit, helped make my retirement a very relaxing and enjoyable time. May he rest in Peace.

“ The Timonium Chess Nuts are saddened so much. Tom was a member of the Mercy Ridge Chess Club and when we would make a bad move he would say :Now that is a legal move" which means we were going to lose that piece.
