

Mr. Thomas Joseph Hergenroeder

September 30, 1935 - March 2, 2024

Tom Hergenroeder passed away peacefully on March 2, 2024 at Stella Maris Hospice. After graduating from Towson Catholic High School in 1954, Tom began his career years at Bethlehem Steel. Continuing his interest in building with steel and iron, Tom became a member of the Iron Workers Union, and after many years, retired due to injuries.

He enjoyed many hobbies including body building, scuba diving, hunting, fishing, and boating, while remaining a member of the Iron Workers Union. He is predeceased by his loving parents, John & Dorothy Hergenroeder, and five siblings, Jack, Charles, Francis, and Joan Hergenroeder and Mary Hill. He is survived by six sisters, Dolores Pomles, Barbara Gizinski, Elizabeth Pepple, Dorothy Hall, Marie Hergenroeder, and Anita Posterli. Also survived by devoted nephew Jack Hergenroeder and his wife Angie, as well as many other nieces, nephews and cousins.

In lieu of flowers donations in his memory can be made to Stella Maris Hospice Unit, 2300 Dulaney Valley Road, Timonium, MD 21093.
