“ We have lost a long-time wonderful, caring friend in Tom Hunt. It is with heavy hearts that, due to age and physical problems, we are not able to make the trip to pay our respects personally to his beloved family. We shall miss him tremendously; he brightened our lives for many years with visits here in Cumberland and in Baltimore as well. Our sincerest regrets at his passing - he is in our thoughts and prayers/ God
Bless! Bill & Jean Baker, Cumberland, MD

Uncle Tom was an accomplished physician and historian and brought so much knowledge and joy to my life. I thoroughly enjoyed his company and his love for work and his family was an inspiration. I learned a lot from him and his company always brought joy to my life. He will be sorely missed. Love ya Uncle Tom.
