

Thomas Lynch M.D.

August 21, 1922 - October 11, 2016

On October 11, 2016, Thomas Lynch, M.D., beloved husband to his wife Jennifer, devoted father of Kevin and his wife Laura, Mona Lynch and her husband Greg Coben, Philip and his wife Jennifer McNeely, Brendan and his wife Cynthia. Loving grandfather of Alison and her husband Seth Bennett, Andrew Lynch, Nathan Coben, Molly Coben, Clare Lynch and Brendan Joseph Lynch. Also survived by brothers Patrick Lynch, Hugh Lynch and sisters Joan O'Connell and Pauline Olwill who all still reside in his native Ireland.

Thomas was born in County Cavan, Ireland August 21, 1922. The eldest son of ten children, he defied his family's expectation to enter the priesthood as his bent was to practice medicine. He was a graduate of the University of College Dublin and spent time practicing medicine in Ireland and England before immigrating to the United States in 1951. After three years training at a hospital in Detroit, he came to Baltimore, became a US citizen and worked at Seton Psychiatric Institute as the assistant medical director, and eventually became the director of the inpatient psychiatric unit. He was Associate Professor of Psychiatry at Johns Hopkins and also had a private practice, along with working at Sinai and Union Memorial Hospitals. On his personal time he enjoyed spending time with his wife and children and grandchildren and also reading, tennis, golf, exercising and an occasional gin and tonic.
