June 26, 1936 - March 13, 2015

On March 13, 2015, at Arden Court, Ruxton, Thomas Charles Martel, of Roland Park, Baltimore, MD; beloved husband of Nancy Byrnes Martel; devoted father of Kay Martel Connors,(Jack), Thomas C. Martel, Jr., Stephen J. Martel (Tracy) and Ned Martel; dear grandfather of Sean Connors, Max Connors, Anna Connors, Finn Martel, Pheobe Martel, and Grace Martel; loving brother of Mary Joan Perry of Annapolis, MD, Joseph F. Martel, Jr. of Baltimore, MD and the late Sister Patricia Martel, SSJ, and Edward J. Martel. Mr. Martel was born on June 26, 1936 in Baltimore to the late Joseph F. Martel, Sr. and Catherine Cohee Martel. He was raised in Edmondson Village, raised his family in Rodgers Forge, Cedarcroft and Kernewood. He and his family spent weekends on Peachblossom Creek in Easton, MD. He worked for KLN B, a commercial and industrial real estate brokerage, now based in Towson, MD from 1973 until 2000. He served as the firm's president for ten years until his retirement and led its growth as a regional powerhouse serving hundreds of businesses from huge franchises to mom-and-pop shops. During the Berlin Crisis, he served in the U.S. Army in the early 1960's and was stationed near Augusta, GA. He graduated from Loyola Blakefield in 1954, later proudly serving on their directors board. In 1953, he won the McCormack Prize honoring his high school football team's Unsung Hero.

He graduated from Loyola College in 1958.

Interment private.
