

Mrs. Virginia Mullins Hemelt

June 9, 1922 - July 9, 2013

On July 9, 2013, VIRGINIA MULLINS HEMELT beloved wife of the late Charles Francis Hemelt, Jr.; dear mother of Virginia Hemelt Heckmueller M.D., and her husband John, Charles F. 3rd, and his wife Linda, William J., and his wife Anne, and James T. Hemelt. She is the devoted sister of the late Betty McMahon (nee Mullins), beloved daughter of the late Ida and Peter Mullins. See is also survived by six grandchildren and three great-grandsons.

She resided at Oak Crest Village since 2007. Prior to that, she was a long time resident of Dunkirk Road in Rodgers Forge, where she was an active parishioner of St Pius X. She was devoted to furthering the educational pursuits of her children and supported her husband's career in the savings and loan association business. She was an avid artist, whose oil paintings were exhibited in local competitions and commercial settings. She was a native of San Francisco and graduated from Lone Mountain College prior to moving to Baltimore to marry Charles Hemelt. The couple met in San Francisco towards the end of World War II when Charles, a Naval lieutenant, was stationed there.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions may be made to Oak Crest Benevolent Care Fund, c/o Philanthropy Care Office, 8800 Walther Blvd, Parkville, MD 21234.
