“ I had the pleasure of working with LtCol Warren in the mid 80s at DIA. I remember when he interviewed me. It was the best interview and he selected me. He was one of the best supervisors that I had. Truly a family man who understood the demands of mothers. I extend my sincerest condolences to the family. May he sleep in heavenly peace.

“ I remember Uncle Warren visiting at Grandma and Bopp's when I was a child. I don't honestly remember any specific events, but I do remember his smile, it was so gentle and kind in my mind. And for some reason (unknown to me), I always saw him as something if a super hero, he was Mom's "cool" cousin. My heart goes out to the entire family. All my Love,
Heather Anne Walter

“ I first met Lt. Col. Walter in 1983 when I started dating his son, Todd. To say I was intimidated is an understatement. He exuded authority and I was terrified. Over the next 38 years I would come to know him as a father, grandfather, dog lover, avid boater, problem solver and passionate supporter. I will treasure the memories of long discussions on the back porch and his sage advice. He was one of a kind and he will be missed. Until we meet again, Rest In Peace.
