“ I remember him as I was growing up and a friend of Annetta's. As a bus driver he was driving the bus I was on many times. A few times I was on the bus that was going out of service and he would tell me to stay on, then he would drop me off at the stop near his house so I wouldn't have to take transfers. He was a very loving person and I know his family will miss him. But for sure he is with his wife of many years and I'm sure she is showing him the ropes. Love You Mr. Red.
