“ Bill was so lucky to have a loving family by his side. He was so proud of all of you even during his stubborn and hard headed times. I am so sad I have not seen him recently but there was not a week gone by that he was not in my thoughts. He will not be forgotten nor his loving family.

“ I had the privilege of meeting Uncle Billy one time but it was an auspicious occasion since it was the first time he had stepped on a beach since Iwo Jima 70 years ago. Since first meeting his nephew Jim at sunrises on Bethany Beach I was captivated by stories of Uncle Billy wartime experiences. As a non combat Vietnam Veteran I have so much respect for "The Greatest Generation". Thank you Uncle Billy for the respect you paid to me and opening up on what must be horrid memories. You have earned your place in Heaven and I am glad you were with your loving nephew when it was time to say farewell to this world. Jim told me, "I'm sure gonna miss him" and even though I only had the pleasure of your company once I'm going to miss you too.....RIP Uncle Billy
