

Mr. William "Billy" Hocking Morgan

November 19, 1950 - April 3, 2024

Mr. William Hocking Morgan passed away on April 3, 2024. Known as Billy, he was born November 9, 1950, the son of Edmund Tileston Mudge III and Mary Lynn Marburg Brett, later adopted by John M. Morgan, and is survived by his brother, Edmund Tileston Mudge IV, half-brother, Edgar Allan Poe IV, and step-brother, J. Marshall Morgan. He was predeceased by his wife, Mary Morgan.

Billy graduated the St. Paul's School in Baltimore, then attended the University of Richmond. Growing up, he was an active member of the Crazy Cousins Club, AKA The Troublemakers, at family gatherings. He became a professional welder, member of Plumber & Steamfitters Local 486, and had a penchant for fixing everything from a furnace to a teacup. He enjoyed gardening and photography, was fond of his pet frogs, fish and snakes, and was an avid collector of model trains.

A private memorial will be held May 23rd. After his mother's passing in 2022, he took over donating to the many charities for animal welfare that she supported. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in his memory to Little Longears Miniature Donkey Rescue (<https://www.littlelongears.org>), Gentle Giants Draft Horse Rescue (<https://www.gentlegiantsdrafthorsescue.org>), the ASPCA (<https://secure.aspc.org/donate>) the National Wildlife Federation (<https://www.nwf.org>) or the animal related charity of your choice.
