“ My little brother ... I wish I had the time to find and go through 50 years of photos of you and you and I together. Our childhood years, early adult years and all the things we did together. We had so much fun growing up together, always. Even in our later adult years, up until you went home to Jesus. It wasn't but 6 months ago you and I spent 11 hours straight on the phone on a Sunday just talking and laughing. We laughed a lot. I've never in my life talked that long on the phone but that day has been special to me ever since. We really did have fun. You and I have always had a special bond with each other since we were kids. It's always been special to both of us ... That's probably why you put up with me being your, "Hound Dog & Private Detective," as you would refer to me to so many. I miss you now and will forever miss you!!! I'm sad you're gone, but I'm happy for you and you and I know why. God has given you peace and I saw that peace on your face last week when I saw you for the last time. Seeing how peaceful you are now instantly healed my heart over losing you. I thank God for giving you to me in that way as I truly know you are in his care, with Mom, Daddy & David and you are no longer suffering. You truly are at peace. I love you, Willie ... FOREVER! Until we meet again! You're forever in my heart!
