

Mr. William C. Neutze

September 15, 1943 - December 31, 2019

Bill is survived by his daughters, Marlee Burdette and her husband Michael Burdette, and Roxanne Byczkowski, his sister, Anne Neutze, six grandchildren, 4 great grandchildren, and many loving extended family members and friends.

Uncle Sissy loved lacrosse, where he was recognized for his cradling ability and stamina for the sport. He was a proud Navy veteran and when he was honorably discharged he was a general contracting foreman. Bill spent his free time watching many old western movies, listening to old tunes, and loved boating, fishing, crabbing, and hunting. He was always bartering and labor swapping with his many loyal friends to not only save everyone money but to help everyone too. Bill loved animals and had a few pets, including the local deer and fox that visited his house daily.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Wounded Warriors Project.

*My heart is sadden with the passing of another friend. My last fond memory of Neutz was when he was dancing with all the girls at Mike Nopps wedding! May loving memories sustain you during this sad time.
