

Mrs. Winifred J. Strueber

June 3, 1929 - December 24, 2019

Also known as Win, Winny, Joan, and Gaby was cherished by all who had the privilege of having her in their lives, including her late husband, John (Jack) Strueber, her children Sharon Strueber Slevin, Mary Strueber, Julie Strueber Heller, Frank Strueber, and the late John Strueber, as well as their spouses, Michael Chait, Robert Heller, and Joyce Strueber, and Braxton Fink (surviving spouse of John) and grandchildren Lauren Cappelle, Chris Slevin, Owen Slevin, Patrick Slevin, Jacqueline Barrett, and Kristina Barrett and four great-grandchildren.

Joan was a mother lioness for whom family always came first. She was a lover of art and a seeker of knowledge, accomplishing much along the way, whether as an acting instructor at Towson University, or as an actress on the stage or screen, or as a talented painter. Along with her husband, she was an intrepid traveler, sailing from the Caribbean to Canada, making friends along the way, and surviving a few close calls, always with great stories to follow. Through her example, she taught her children to approach life with curiosity and gusto, and that silliness should never be underrated as a survival skill. Her patience was legendary, her humor infectious, her intellect sharp, and her heart full. We would love to have her with us still, but she received a call, a sort of offer that she couldn't refuse for an appointment from which she will not be returning. This assignment comes with a huge sign-on bonus, a reunion with family and friends she has not seen in a long time.

A celebration of her life will be held at 1pm on Sunday, January 5th, at Edenwald Senior Living located at 800 Southerly Rd, Towson, MD 21286. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Immigration Outreach Services Center: <https://www.ioscbaltimore.org/donate/>
