“ Boy did we have fun together, from cutting class to go hang out in the Brandywoods on the Blacktop to camping and the infamous " Poconos House" trip. I almost forgot that you were burnt to a crisp that one time we hung out in FLA, oh and don't forget you did it once more at my wedding you Lobster you!!
It's all coming back to me in flashes, the awesome and most unforgettable times that we all shared together. I am glad that EL and I came to visit and spend a couple of days with you not too long ago, I only wish that we could go back and change time; we still had a few more things to accomplish together. No worries though, you will look down and be included in all that we do cause you are a piece of our hearts and thoughts and live on forever within us. You certainly impacted my life and I will cherish all of the memories we created. I know you are up there with your other half Jake, who i also consider a brother. Love you guys..... until the day we all meet again.
